REPORT NO.

SOURCE

1. The 2 Battalion of 14 Macedonian Infantry Regiment is located at Petrich. The rest of 14 Macedonian Infantry Regiment is located at Gorna Dzhumaya.
2. An unidentified battalion of 25 Infantry Regiment (known as the Sliven Regiment) is in Petrich. The rest of 25 Infantry Regiment is in Pirin.
3. The total strength of the border garrison of Petrich is about 300. It is divided into four sub-sectors. Each sub-sector maintains seven guard-posts manned by 10 men each.
4. A considerable quantity of arms and supplies is being transported by military vehicles from Sveti Vrach via Petrich to Zlatarevo (on the Yugoslav border). The arms are stored 2.5 to 3 kilometers east of Zlatarevo. Columns of 10 trucks have been frequently observed moving over this road recently.
5. There is a curfew in Petrich every day at 9 p.m. and in the surrounding villages at 8 p.m. Consequently movements of such vehicles at night is unobserved, but one hears of it from persons associating with members of the Party, for the latter can move about freely at all hours.
